

HOSTILE ENVIRONMENT TRAINING INSTRUCTOR - £39,000

International Security Training - Centre South East England

The List seeks to fill an enduring requirement for a Hostile Environment Training Instructor for clients who operate an International Security Training Centre which delivers security training for civilians about to deploy to hostile locations.

As a member of a small close-knit team The Hostile Environment Training Instructor plays a key part in delivering the Programme which includes eight core modules: Planning; Medical; Trauma Medical; Vehicle considerations; Battlefield awareness; Person safety/Situational awareness; Conflict management; Kidnap.

The role will include teaching on high profile hostile environment weekly training courses – some courses starting at 0745 hours (for which reason candidates should live or be prepared to move to within one hour's travel of the Training Centre in the South East) – and some International travel will be involved to the USA and the Middle East.

Students are drawn from the private sector, the Media, Government and the Diplomatic Services so personal standards of Presentation, dress and conduct must be exemplary. Candidates who have demonstrable Medical Qualifications and Operational Tour Experience will be particularly welcome.

The successful candidate will have:

- Proven experience of teaching high quality safety/medical courses in the private sector
- Teaching qualifications – For example PTTLs- BTEC level 3, CTTLS BETEC level 3
- Experience of working in the private security sector
- Experience of working with the media
- A Customer focussed attitude
- Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to establish and maintain productive working relations with both internal and external Clients (including Media and NGOs)
- Confidence in communicating with all levels of society
- The ability to be Innovative and receptive to change
- Strong organisational skills
- The ability to work well in a small team
- IT literacy, Excellent Microsoft Office experience
- Exceptional attention to detail
- Good written communication skills.
- Full driving licence

Desirable qualifications and experience are:

- Medically trained - first aid instructor, team medic
- Operational Tour experience
- Be well travelled

- Conflict management/self defence qualifications
- Off road driving
- Mini bus/Bus licence

If you feel this is a role for which you are suitably experienced and qualified, are attracted by the challenge of teaching at this senior level as a member of a small team , would find the salary offered of £39,000 attractive and live or can relocate within 1 hour of the Training Centre, please reply to response1@thelistuk.com with a CV and letter of application stating in the subject matter line of your e-mail Hostile Environment Training Instructor. Please note that those who have applied previously for a similar role are not required to apply again.